Cooking With Comfort in Summer.

HE desirability of using an OIL STOVE for summer cooking cannot be overestimated. In buying an oil stove be sure to get one that's worthy. The Puritan Blue-Flame Oil Stove is best. It is an excellent make and never fails to give complete satisfaction. It makes its own gas from ordinary kerosene oil, and makes it at about one-third the expense of gas made from coal. It burns with a hot blue flame.

Mme. de Meissner's Lecture.

The Baroness Rosen, wife of the Russian mbassador, is much interested in the "Illustrated Talk" which Mme. de Meissner is to give in Linthicum Hall, Georgetown, on Friday evening, May 21, in behalf of Christ Church, and for the relief of the famine sufferers in Russia, and intends with her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Rosen, to be present on that occasion. The views shown will be taken from photographs and sketches made by the war and home correspondents of the St. Petersburg New Times and Niva, and will include, among many others, scenes of the Russo-Japanese war that have not hitherto been shown in the United States.

Graduation Recital.

The graduating recital of Miss Alice Terrel, pupil of the piano teachers' training course, Fraulein Marie von Unschuld, instructor, was held yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the University of Music and Dramatic Art. The entire program was given with understanding concerning the different piano pieces, and also in the wellwritten paper on "The Development of the German Church Song." The performance of a little pupil, Margaret Chapman, who was taught by Miss Terrel, under the supervision of Fraulein von Unschuld, demonstrated understanding of method, and Miss Terrel's capability to impart it to pupils. The parlors of the university were filled to their capacity by an appreciative audience, and many flower tributes were presented to the graduate.

sented to the graduate.

The following was the program:

1. L. von Beethoven, Sonata, A flat major, Andate com Variazoni, Scherzo, Marcia Funebre sulla Morte d'un Eroe; 2. (a) Bach, Prelude and Fugue, C major; (b) Chopin, Three Preludes; (c) Liszt, Gnomenreigen. 3. "The Development of the German Church Song," by Miss Alice Terrel. 4. Schumann, "Knecht Ruprecht," played by Margaret Chapman, instructed by Miss Alice Terrel, under the supervision of Fraulein Marie von Unschuld. 5. Schubert-Liszt, "Wanderer, Fantasie," orchestral accompaniment played on the second plano by Fraulein Marie von Unschuld.

Wills Filed for Probate.

The will of Gen. Orlando Bolivar Willcox, dated March 4, 1895, has been filed for probate. It provides that his widow, Mrs. Julia E. Willcox, shall have the use of the entire estate during her life. At her death one-half will go to her children, and the other half to Grace North Comegys, daughter of the general by a previous marriage. Mrs. Willcox and Orlando Blodgett Willcox are named as executors. Rev. Walter H. Brooks is given $100, and Rev. Walter H. Brooks is given $100. and the poor fund of the Nineteenth Street Baptist Church $25 by the terms of the will of Hattle Johnson, dated March 27, 1906, and filed for probate. After various bequests to relatives and friends are made the will directs that the remaining estate go to her niece, Hattle B. Kyles. Rev. Walter H. Brooks is named executor.

Launching of Power Launch.

The new power launch, in process of con struction at the boathouse of Capt. Sonny Reagan, at the foot of 13th street south west, for Messrs. Carter & Clark of this city, will, it is stated, be ready for launching early this week, and she will be put into the water with due ceremony. When she is launched the new craft will be given the name "Virginia," in honor of the native state of her owners. The launch when completed will be one of the handsomest vessels of its kind on the Potomac and will be, it is thought, quite a speedy craft. It is about 40 feet long and has ample beam to give it stability on the water. It has roomy accommodations for twelve or fifteen pas-sengers on day trips and will be fitted with modern marine equipment for the comfort and convenience of those who will travel on her. She has a pilot house forward, and the engine room will be located well aft, leaving all the amidship section of the boat for passenger accommodation. The house for passenger accommodation. The house on the new launch is built of walnut, which will be polished and varnished to bring out the natural colors and the grain in the wood and the interior of the cabin will be finished in hard wood. The Virginia will, it is thought, be ready for service about the middle of the coming month. She will be used by her owners for pleasure purposes and for service in visiting points down river.

Trade Treaty With Netherlands. Secretary Root and Mr. Von Swinderen, the Dutch minister, have concluded an agreement under section 3 of the Dingley tariff act by the terms of which, in return for an abatement of 25 per cent in the du-ties imposed in the United States on im-ports of Dutch spirits, the most favored tariff rates are accorded to American goods entering the Netherlands. MDERSON. Sacred to the memory of my deal mother and our grandmother, RENA ANDERSON, who entered into rest two years ago to-day, May 21, 1905. BY THE FAMILY.

CROWN. In sad but loving remembrance of out darling baby, FRANKLIN RUSSELL CROWN who died one year ago today, May 21, 1906. the died one year ago today, May 21, 1906. The midnight stars are beaming Upon a silent grave Where sleepeth without dreaming The one we could not save. Heaven retaineth now the treasure, Earth the lonely casket keeps, And the sunbeams love to linger Where our darling baby sleeps.

BY HIS PARENTS.

SORRELL. In sad but loving remembrance of my dearly beloved husband and our father; JOSEPH W. SORRELL, who departed this life one year ago today, May 21, 1908.

One sad year has passed, dear Joe;
O God, how sad to me.
I have missed your coming footsteps,
I have missed your coming footsteps,
I have missed you in the hour of need.
Ofttimes to the graveyard I wander,
Flowers to strew with tender care
On the grave of one I shall always remember.
BY HIS LOVING WIFE AND CHILDREN.

In memory I ofttimes see
The one I loved so dear.
The vision grows so clear sometimes
I feel he must be near.
Days of sadness still come o'er me,
Tears of sorrow silently flow;
Fond memory keeps my father near me,
Though heaven claimed him one year ago.
BY HIS LOVING DAUGHTER MANNIE AND SON HARRY.

I see the pale moon shining
On papa's marble stone;
The rosebush around it twining
Is just like me, alone;
Just like me, a-weeping,
The dewdrops from my brow.
One year has he been sleeping,
I have no papa now.
